Your 15-inch laptop is going to like this Canyon BPL-5 backpack. They were made for each other, and you will be delighted by the way everything works in this tandem. The ease of access to the laptop is unmatched. The versatility, too – it has a zipper that allows you to change the volume. Up to six centimeters of depth, add or subtract, the math is still flawless. So is your style with this slick-looking backpack. Comfort above expectations. Easy access to your laptop: get it out or put it back anytime, even if you're already packed. The zipper allows you to change the inner volume for the moments when you really need space. Smart organization for your everyday essentials. Six internal pockets, four outside pockets, and a 15.6" laptop sleeve. Sounds like a perfect setup when you need to organize your daily essentials.
